AGREED SCHEDULING ORDER

Pursuant to the Court's determination that discovery in this matter is to proceed under Level 3, the Court ORDERS:

I

PRETRIAL

CONSOLIDATION

The above entitled and numbered case is, until further order, consolidated for pretrial purposes. This order does not constitute a determination that these actions should be consolidated for trial, nor does it have the effect of making any entity a party to an action in which it has not been joined and served in accordance with the Texas Rules of Civil Procedure.

II.

LIAISON COUNSEL

Plaintiffs shall designate one attorney to act as Liaison Counsel for and on behalf of all Plaintiffs and Defendants shall designate one or more attorneys to act for and on behalf of Defendants as to the following: scheduling and coordination of dates, times and places for depositions; coordination of meetings of respective counsel and such other responsibilities as the Court may direct. Liaison Counsel may be designated by the agreement of Counsel. Absent an agreement, the Parties are invited to make recommendations to the Court and the Court will enter an Order making such appointment.

The responsibilities of Defense Liaison Counsel(s) shall include the scheduling and orderly administration of Plaintiff and co-worker depositions and Medical Examinations. The Defense Liaison Counsel(s) shall also be the custodian(s) for copies of Plaintiffs' pathology, chest x-rays and related medical materials when they are provided for examination and remain responsible for the prompt and timely return of such items to counsel for Plaintiffs.
